God Bless you all.

The Christian steward approaches life with an "Easter vision" rooted in gratitude for the salvation our Lord has won for us through His death and Resurrection. Today's readings on this Divine Mercy Sunday teach us how this approach plays out in daily life and remind us that we can have complete trust in the mercy of God to lead us, step by step, to heaven.

The Horizons of Hope Palliative Care Info Session at St. Vital Church

We the Pastoral Care Team invite you to participate in learning sessions on Horizons of Hope: A toolkit for Catholic Parishes on Palliative Care. Our faith in Jesus Christ has much to teach us about living well until the end of life. The program will help parishioners, caregivers and family members facing a terminal illness to learn more about palliative care. Throughout four modules, the learning and discussion sessions address themes such as understanding the dying process, discernment and decision-making at the end of life, accompaniment and the importance of building Compassionate Communities.

The four-module program will take place in the St. Vital Parish Hall.

Second Sunday of Easter - A

A Vocation View: It is only through people like you that others will be able to say: "We have seen the Lord." With the resurrection to empower you and with Jesus to lure you, you too can inspire others who have not seen to believe.

Prayer: For all our priests, deacons, sisters and brothers whom God has sent in the name of Jesus to serve the people of our diocese, that they will be blessed with continued faithfulness to Him and inspire many more to consider a vocation to consecrated life and ordained ministry; we pray to the Lord.

Action: THE LOVING ENVIRONMENT of a family draws forth an individual's greatest talents and gifts. We've come to realize that creating an atmosphere in which children can hear the Lord's call is one of the most significant responsibilities resting on our shoulders as parents. Our own lives must reflect the presence of God, His word, and the love He offers His people.
