We extend our sincere appreciation to parishioners, community, ladies of the softball group and CWL who donated beautiful dainties for Marilyn's funeral lunch. The O'Driscoll family extends their gratitude for the dainties and the outpouring of love they felt during this difficult time. The dainties were enjoyed and shared with family members following the return from the cemetery. Thank you for the financial donations to the Parish Roof Repair Fund received in memory of Marilyn. Special thanks to the many CWL members who served with grace, dignity and respect in the honor guard. May God bless you all!
