 For the political leaders

We pray that political leaders be at the service of their own people, working for integral human development and for the common good, especially caring for the poor and those who have lost their jobs.

Thank you to St.Vital Parish family. You are a blessing in my priestly life. Thank you for your love and support! We worked together to build the St. Vital family. Please carry on your good work to keep the family together.

The potluck lunch on Sunday was very successful. Thank you to the organizers, all the people that attended, the delicious food and all who helped clean up.
It was a joyful time.
When we fellowship with each other we fellowship with God.

Vocation Corner - 18th Sunday in Ordinary Time - B

A Vocation View: "I am the Bread of Life. He who comes to me will never be hungry; he who believes in me will never thirst." 'Lord, send us priests after your own heart to give us the Food of everlasting life - Your Very Self in the Eucharist.' Consider a call to the priesthood of Jesus Christ.

Prayer: That as every vocation bears with it a prophetic message, the Lord will send more priests, deacons and consecrated religious into the darkness of the world as shining lamps of truth, we pray to the Lord.

Action: The life of prayer and contemplation founded on the Eucharistic mystery is also at the heart of the vocation of consecrated people who have chosen the path of the sequel Christi, to give themselves to the Lord with an undivided heart in an ever more intimate relationship with him. By their unconditional attachment to Christ and to his Church, they have the special mission to reminding everyone of the universal vocation to holiness...Consecrated men and women proclaim that God alone can give fullness to human existence. Pope Benedict XVI, 2006 Address to Canadian Bishops
