Vocation Corner - 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time - C

A Vocation View: The word of God becomes the flesh of God when YOU live it in your life. Believe what you read; live what you believe. Be the face of Christ for others.

Prayer: For all men and women called by Jesus to teach the Gospel as priests, deacons, sisters and brothers, that the joy of the Lord will remain their strength during their discernment, formation and mission, we pray to the Lord.

Action: The Christian faithful have an obligation to foster vocations to the priesthood and the religious life by living faithfully the call to holiness, by holding vocations to the priesthood and the religious life in esteem, and by encouraging young men and women to consider the possibility of a call from God to the ordained or consecrated states.

January 2025: Communications & Media

For all media personnel and journalists who stand up for the truth by speaking the truth. Protect and enable them be the voice of the voiceless and give a face to the faceless. Bless all who uphold their Christian values by delivering truthful news and information to the people of this nation. We pray to the Lord,

On behalf of the Soup Kitchen and the Parish Council we would like to thank all those who were able to participate in our Soup Kitchen Food Drive in December. The Soup kitchen is an important service in our community which provides food for those less fortunate. It emanates what Jesus asks us to do: "Love our neighbors as ourselves". Please consider donating to the Soup Kitchen located in Living Faith Chapel on your own or donating your time which is so needed. Thank you in advance.

The objective of our life is the kingdom of God, but we should carefully ask what we should aim for. If we do not look very carefully into this we will wear ourselves out in useless strivings. For those who travel without a marked road there is the toil of the journey and no arrival at a destination. - St. John Cassian

The Christian life is a continuation and completion of the life of Christ in us. - St. John Eudes
